Terms & Conditions

Wind Integration Workshop 2013

Acceptance:

- I hereby accept that the entire contents of each and every abstract I submit are the sole work of the author or authors credited.
- I hereby accept that all authors credited for each and every abstract I submit are aware of their name being used and are in agreement with it being used in this manner.
- I hereby accept that all abstracts submitted and may be used in the planning of this conference.

Guidelines for submitting an abstract

General guidelines

- Please submit your abstracts via internet. Abstracts submitted via fax, e-mail, post, or other methods will generally not be accepted.
- The conference language is English.
- Abstract changes and corrections will be accepted until May 11, 2013, 23:59:59 CEST.
- For the presenting authors of accepted abstracts, registration and participation in this conference are binding. For further information concerning registration see the conference homepage.

Abstract contents and format

- Please formulate clearly and concisely the goal, the methods used, and the conclusion of each abstract.
- Abstract titles should be concise and direct.
- Please use a minimum of formatting for abstracts. We cannot guarantee that abstracts will be formatted in the exact way as they are entered.
- Avoid using non-standard abbreviations.
- Do not use the title nor the name(s) of the author(s) in the body of the abstract.

Help

- Help for abstract submission is provided onscreen in each section of our site.
- A help guideline for our entire system is available for download as a PDF document. Please click on Help in the main menu.

We thank you and wish you success when submitting abstracts!
